<small>*For joint accounts: The primary account owner's name and social security number listed will be used for tax reporting purposes. Heritage Investment Services Fund, Inc. (HIS Fund) limits joint accounts to the primary account owner and one joint owner. Both the primary and joint tenant account owners must sign this form. However, in the discretion of HIS Fund, only the signature of one of the account owners may be required for transactions with respect to a joint account, including withdrawals, renewals, reinvestment and address changes. HIS Fund may act at any time on the instructions of either account owner and withdrawal checks may be made payable to either named account owner. Account statements and other correspondence will be sent only to the address of the primary account owner. Please consult with your tax advisor regarding possible tax implications of joint accounts.</small>
